

Excerpt from CNBC, June 27, 2019

Here's a look at the best-performing ETFs in 2019

....

Despite a bumpy road riddled with trade tensions, rate hike drama and global growth fears, stocks are pacing for their best first half in 22 years and are hovering near record levels.

....

Still, the ETF business has had some notable winners this year — and it's a fairly diverse group leading the charge.

Top-performing ETFs in 2019 (excluding leveraged and inverse ETFs):

....

....

1. Invesco WilderHill Clean Energy ETF: up 36% Another way to bet on the clean energy story. Top holdings include SunPower, First Solar, SolarEdge Technologies and Daqo New Energy Corp.