Alternative Energy Equities: Slowly Rebounding

Our page containing ETFs with exposure to alternative energy equities has registered a traffic increase of around 29% this past week compared with the same period a week ago. PowerShares WilderHill Clean Energy Portfolio (PBW B-), an ETF consisting of green energy firms such as Tesla Motors (TSLA) and Universal Display (OLED), has edged up more than 2% in the past week, but its year-to-date performance remains down nearly 16%.

There are reasons to believe clean energy stocks will continue their rebound going forward, particularly considering the recent tax credit extensions from the US government. Downward pressure could continue if fossil fuel supplies increase, coupled with falling oil prices.
