The most popular article I've written, based on the response from readers, was about the PowerShares WilderHill

Clean Energy Portfolio (PBW:Amex - commentary - research - Cramer's Take). Since I wrote about it at the beginning of March, it has tracked the Energy Select Sector SPDR Fund (XLE:Amex - commentary - research - Cramer's Take) very closely. Over the last year, it is up 70% vs. 40% for the energy SPDR. It is likely to continue to do well as long as energy remains strong.
